

MUSIC CITY AARHUS

A guide to concerts, venues and festivals

WELCOME to Music City Aarhus

AARHUS HAS A long tradition of a well-renowned, varied and often trendsetting music scene. This scene is rooted in a wide range of settings around the city: The Royal Academy of Music, Aarhus University, music schools, recording studios, rehearsal facilities, underground festivals and music venues. At the same time, Aarhus has a strong tradition of collaboration among artists, a tradition which is still maintained, especially by the new and upcoming generation of musicians.

Countless bands originate from the city's strong musical environment and heritage. Artists have had opportunities to present their music in the numerous venues of Aarhus. Former places such as HUSET, Tagskægget, V58, and Motown, ring bells of nostalgia for the mature audience. Today, these former local "landmarks" have been replaced by a string of new and modern venues such as Train, VoxHall, Atlas and Radar.

Furthermore, there is an underground of smaller venues and promoters which keep the city alive all nights of the week. Fatter Eskil, HeadQuarters, Gyngen and the newly opened TAPE, are some of the many places you can experience a concert in "Aarhus by night".

For the big national- and international superstars, it is often places such as Concert Hall Aarhus, NRGi Park & Arena and Scandinavian Congress Center that provide the setting.

When it comes to festivals, Aarhus is well represented too. Besides a range of festivals spanning from jazz to metal to electronic music, SPOT Festival has presented the upcoming stars at venues around town for a number of years. Other festivals such as Grim Festival and the more recent NorthSide, have underlined that Aarhus is a festival city to be reckoned with.

In addition, every Friday during the summer months the most popular Danish artists play at "Fed Fredag" – or "Groovy Friday" at Tivoli Friheden. The annual summer rock caravan, Grøn Koncert also stops by every year in July.

For a more nostalgic feel, you can visit Den Gamle By – The Old Town Museum where the city's legendary jazz bar, Bent J has been revived. So go ahead and listen; there are plenty of opportunities in Aarhus – the city of music.
